

Taj Denis Island Resort

Denis is a coralline island, situated 95 kilometers north of the main island of Mahé and a 30-minute plane journey away. It forms part of the outer islands and is a haven for sea turtles, birds, and giant tortoises.

The 25 elegant villas are surrounded by casuarinas and palm trees and have been decorated to blend in with nature. They are divided into 3 different categories:

- 23 deluxe villa each measuring 90m^x and equipped with air-con, fan, twin jet shower, Outside private courtyard, bath, WC, bidet, tea & coffee-making facilities, mini bar, iron/ ironing Board and hairdryer.
- 1 Family Villa, « Villa Prince Noir” measuring 169m^x and equipped with an extra room.
- 1 Executive Villa, “Villa Bois d’argent” measuring 325m^x and equipped with an extra lounge.

The hotel’s restaurant is sure to tickle the guests’ taste buds with its sumptuous Creole and international cuisine.

Denis Island is also a great place for the avid fisherman. World records for big game fishing have been beaten in its waters: marlins, sailfish, bonitos, tunas, barracudas, wahoos, dorados and jobs are plentiful!
